

Don't judge Biscuit by his kennel.

He's nervous in his kennel run. In the play yard, he's a different dog.

Biscuit has been with us since January, and he isn't on our website, so you may not know he's here. If you walk past his kennel, you'll see a big tan-and-black shepherd mix who looks nervous at the front of his run, and you might keep going. Ask to meet him in the play yard instead. Out there he's a different dog, and one-on-one he leans on you.

Good to know

- Male shepherd mix, about 3, large
- House trained, neutered, vaccinated, heartworm negative
- Ask us about cats
- Some dogs OK, with slow introductions
- No chicken in his food, please
- Adoption fee: $150
